A Message from our President

Fellow Rotarians,

Well time is running so we need to sell tickets to Lobster Luau!!! If you have people you are fairly certain are coming who want to pay at the door please let George know. They need a close head count. This is your event so lets make it a success and enjoy all the fun Judy and George have planned into the day by inviting your friends, family and neighbors.

Norma is going on a ship this week and the Bulletin will get out early. So this will give you time to pull together all you loose currancy for a live auction we will have this Tuesday at our meeting! Very exciting but you will need to be their to particiapate so don't miss the meeting. This will be a Club Assembly which we should have once a quarter. We will have the finicial and membership reports and conduct other important Club business.

On Wednesday September 9th is our Board Meeting. All members are invited and especailly Red Badge new members should attend one Board meeting during this period of their getting to know the Club.

Thanks go to the Club for voting to supporting our West Orange High Interact Club and their support of a young girl in Africa. Great way to begin Youth Service Month.

District are asking for our Club to identify how we would like to apply for District Designated Funds. If anyone has suggestions please get with me or a Board member so we can discuss before next Wednesday.

Thank you and happy sailing to Norma and Byron.

And to end: Sell those Lobster tables! In Rotary Service - Stephen

ATTENTION ATTENTION ATTENTION ATTENTION:

Bring you comic papers to Judy for the Lobster Luau!
Get your silent or live auctions items in now!

The only chance you have to win money is to buy your 50/50 Tickets!

New Members!! Bill, Frank and Sanjay!

Rotary Work Day Put it on your calendar
Oct. 11 Edgewood Children's Ranch
